- 1) Dough: Mix flour, salt, and sugar, creating a well. Place butter in the well. Dissolve yeast in milk and pour into the well. Knead into a smooth dough. Cover and let it rise at room temperature until doubled. Do not knead the dough anymore.
- 2) Set aside a small portion of dough for decoration. Divide the remaining dough into 6 parts. Roll each piece into an oval shape. (Length of a baked "Grittibänz": approx. 12 cm)

- 3) Cutting: On both sides, use a dough scraper to cut out a triangle for arms and legs. Cut into the dough.
- 4) Decorations: Press sultanas, nuts, etc., deep into the dough. Form decorations with the remaining dough, such as a scarf, hat, belt, etc. Attach decorations with a little water. For hair, cut zigzags into the head using scissors.
- 5) Preheat the oven to 180°C (360°F) convection (200°C/400°F top/bottom heat). Place the "Grittibänze" on a prepared baking sheet, brush with beaten egg, and bake in the lower half of the preheated oven for about 20 minutes. Test for doneness: "Grittibänze" are ready when they sound hollow when tapped on the underside.
